

We feel this FCC ruling, if passed, would greatly hamper how we communicate with our members. Since our members freely supply their fax numbers for us to contact them with meeting information, reelection information, why should anyone else get involved.